Job Overview

ZutaCore, a startup company with a reach spanning across continents, seeks a highly motivated and detail-oriented Global Logistics & Trade Compliance Expert to join our dynamic Operations team. In this crucial role, you will be essential in ensuring the smooth flow of goods across borders while maintaining strict adherence to international trade regulations.

Responsibilities

- Oversee all import and export operations aspects, collaborating with freight forwarders, customs brokers, and internal stakeholders.
- Manage and ensure the accuracy of trade documentation, including customs declarations, bills of lading, certificates of origin, and other relevant paperwork.
- Stay current on evolving trade regulations, tariffs, and sanctions various countries impose, mitigating potential risks and ensuring compliance.
- Develop and implement effective logistics strategies to optimize costs, delivery times, and supply chain efficiency.
- Monitor, track, and report on the status of shipments to customers, providing real-time updates and proactive communication.
- Conduct thorough research and analysis to identify and implement best practices in global trade compliance.
- Build strong relationships with international shipping partners and customs authorities to facilitate seamless movement of goods.
- Proactively identify and address potential logistical challenges, developing contingency plans to minimize disruptions.
- Maintain meticulous records for all international shipments, ensuring traceability and facilitating audits.
